Ascension Day Acts 1:1-14

Read Acts 1:1-11

- The _____ time Luke mentions the ascension.
- He ended his _____ with the event.
- He's the _____ Gospel author to mention ascension.
- It is seen in Mark, but that section is likely
- added _____ by a scribe.
- To get the _____ interaction story, read Jn 21:1-23, then Lk 24:50-53, then Acts 1:1-9
- In the last physical encounter, Jesus reminds them of God's _____ stated by John the Baptist. (See Mat 3:11, Mark 1:8, Luke 3:16.)
- The disciples ask for a final time about the restoration of _____.
- Three things to note about Jesus' response:
  1. It was not yet appropriate for them to know the times or seasons – notice the _____.
  2. The Father has put the _____ of these events in Himself – the ability to "allow or permit"
  3. The disciples will receive _____ – not the ability to "allow or permit," but a strengthening.
- This scene is just Jesus and the _____.
- No women or His _____.
- Jesus' mother Mary has not been seen in scrip-ture since the day of _____. (Jn 19:27)
- The last act Mary (Jesus' mother) is seen doing in the Bible is _____.